

CAMPAIGN UPDATE AS OF 05 DECEMBER 2018

It's our oral hearing at the High Court this Friday 7th December. We are optimistic the judge will rule that our case has merit and grant permission for a full hearing.

At the heart of our case is the need to ensure we have a democratic process that prevents the buying of power and votes.

We are asking the High Court to rule that illegal campaign spending during the course of the Referendum means the result cannot now be considered the 'will of the people' and therefore the Brexit process should be halted.

We have new expert evidence and Croft Solicitors, our legal advisers, have asked the High Court for permission to submit this as part of our hearing.

Professor Philip N. Howard, Director of the Oxford Internet Institute, a Professor of Internet Studies and a Fellow at Balliol College at the University of Oxford, has concluded that it was very likely that the advertising overspend on Facebook by Vote Leave in the last days of the EU Referendum campaign in 2016 changed the outcome.

In his own words, Professor Howard said: "Having studied its digital campaign in line with voter psychology and behaviour, my professional opinion is that it is very likely that the excessive spending by Vote Leave altered the result of the Referendum."

More than ever we need your help. Please donate whatever you can to help us cover the costs of this important and landmark legal case.

Members of the public MUST be able to rely on the fact that the process behind any vote, not least one so far-reaching for the UK, is carried out lawfully, free from corrupt and illegal practices. This is clearly not the case here.

Please continue to share the UK in EU Challenge case with your networks to drive donations and raise awareness. The more people we can reach, the better.
